2018 Honda Civic Tour

Hey guys!

I'm so excited to be on the road headlining the annual #HondaCivicTour with special guest Hailee Steinfeld. Voicenotes is such a special album to me, and I worked tirelessly to make sure every track was perfect. I can't wait to share it on stage and make new memories with all of you.

My special message!

One of my favorite places to write and record music is on the road. I'm always inspired by the sounds in my environment, and touring gives me the chance to come up with new ideas in every city I visit.

I record melodies and beats on my phone as I go through my day and save them as voice notes. I have hundreds of voice notes saved, and many of them became songs on the album.

*Hence the album title
Voicenotes.

J=100

I've always loved mixing different genres of music, like jazz and pop, or classical and R&B.

I brought a lot of different musical styles and influences into Voicenotes.

I originally wrote
"Attention" as a classical piece and then it morphed
into a funky guitar sound.

It really laid the groundwork for this album.

It put me in a new
place musically,
and I'm really
happy with how it turned out.

 Not everyone knows that I have perfect pitch.
It means I can call out the exact note of every sound I hear...and sometimes those sounds inspire my songwriting.

I think "Somebody Told Me" is the most fun song on the record. I think it sounds like something you'd have on while driving around in a convertible on a nice summer day.

"Through It All" was the first song I wrote for this album. It sounds a bit like my older stuff, which is why it sounds a bit different than the rest of the album, but it was very important to me.

I wrote all of "LA Girls" in one take on the piano. I was in the shower actually, and the beat just came to me. ☺

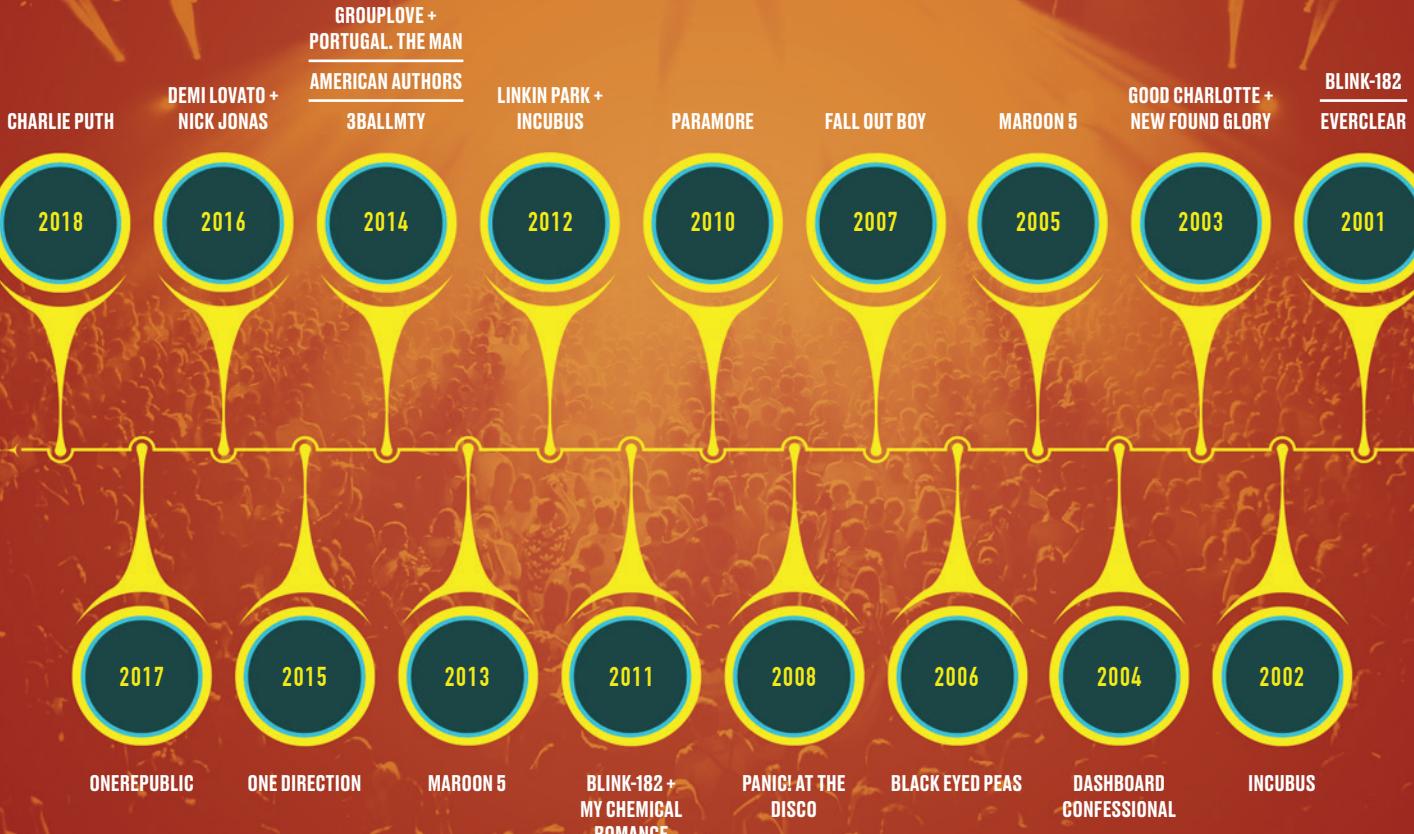

The track "How Long" was written and recorded entirely on a tour bus... with one broken speaker. We were shoved in this tiny room in the back of my tour bus.

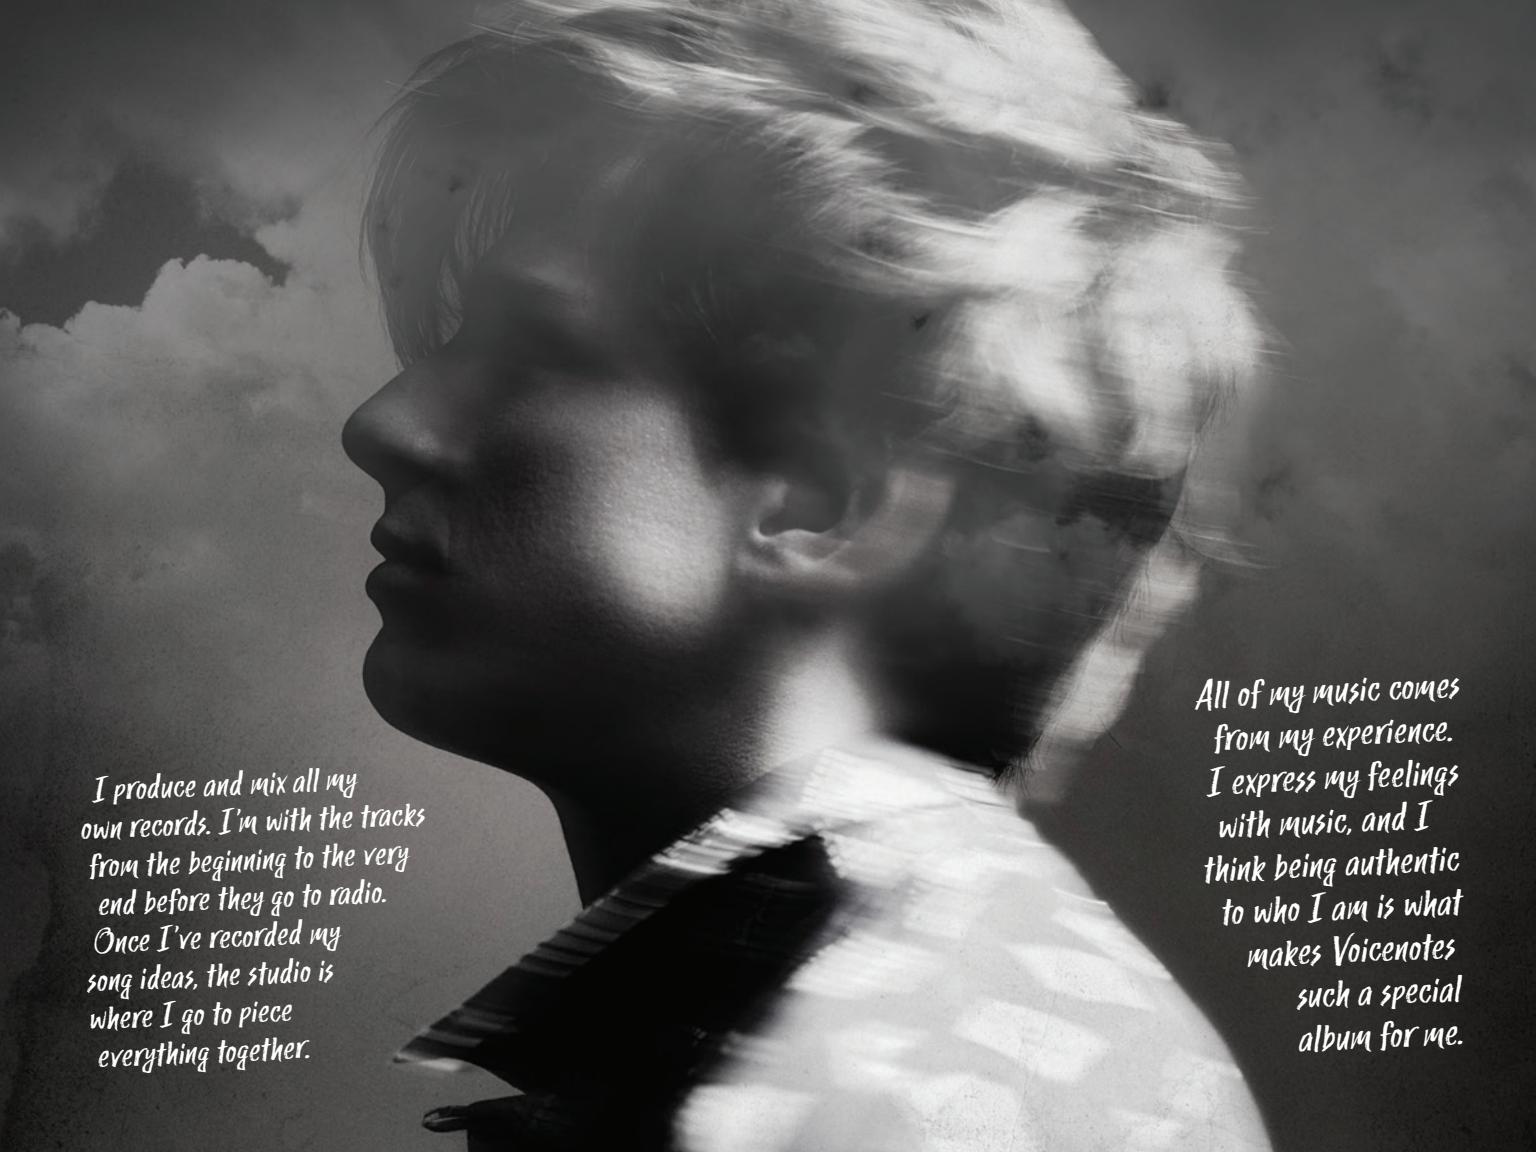

What a way to end the tour!
This has been so much fun.

I produce and mix all my own records. I'm with the tracks from the beginning to the very end before they go to radio. Once I've recorded my song ideas, the studio is where I go to piece everything together.

All of my music comes from my experience. I express my feelings with music, and I think being authentic to who I am is what makes Voicenotes such a special album for me.

*We're all unique, but at the end of the day, music has the ability to bring everyone together.
I hope you all can find a piece of yourself in my music.*
